The World A Beginners Guide

"The World: A Beginner's Guide" is a sociological portrait of the world in 2009. I read Therborn's portrait in order to challenge my own perhaps slightly dated view of the world. For me the book is an antidote against Euro-centrism and a challenge to some of my assumptions about the global working-class.

The good news is that the sprawling world of Azeroth uses simple concepts to build a complex game system. The game itself teaches people how to play, and there are lots of resources, both inside the game and out, for finding answers to questions. In this guide, we'll look at some of the most common questions about playing -- and succeeding.
